THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

talents

Bloom where you are Planted

On this 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Times, year A, the gospel reading (Matthew 25:14-30) highlights some essential values that we should consider as we live out the glorious life God has given us. The story is about a man who invested in his three servants (one he gave five talents, another he gave two talents, and the last he gave one talent), all according to their abilities, and on his return, from a journey, called them in to give him an account of what they did with the investment. The first made a 100% return, and so did the second. Buy the third buried his own, did nothing with it, blamed his master, and gave excuses for his non-performance.

My friends, we are no different from these servants. When the Lord brought us into this world, he equipped us with all kinds of skills, talents, and abilities different from anybody else's. These resources are given to us in our state of life and the unique circumstances of our being, with the hope that we will do something with them and grow into the best versions of ourselves. But two things in life can frustrate our ability to do this—Focus on what we don't have and blaming others and giving excuses.

There is always a tendency in life to focus on what we do not have—if only I had more money, if only I had a different job, if only I had this talent or that ability, if only I had a better upbringing, if only I had supportive parents, if only, if only, if only ... Yet within us lie enormous strengths, talents, gifts, and skills that we can work with and grow. In "Letters of a Young Poet," Rainer Maria Rilke makes a beautiful case when she says, "If your daily life seems poor, do not blame it; blame yourself, tell yourself that you are not poet enough to call forth its riches." Many people have had less of what we have right now and still made it in life. While our background and circumstances may have impacts upon us, there is something we have, something within us that is sufficient for us to plant our seed and blossom. The Bible tells us that to those who use well what they are given, "even more will be given, but to unfaithful, even the little they have will be taken away.

Benjamin Franklin, one of the found-ing fathers of the United States, had this to say: "He that is good for mak-ing excuses is seldom good for anything else." The third servant failed because he buried his thoughts in excuses instead of freeing them up for the opportunity. He traded success with complaints. Excuses are usually behind complaints. Unfortunately, complaining has a way of frustrating the ability to focus on the work at hand, depletes the energy needed to work on goals, and takes attention away from our strengths, as it focuses on what other people are doing rather than what I need to do. Complaining takes a lot of time and energy, and the truth is that if we have time to whine and complain about something, then we likely have the time and energy to do something more productive. The lazy servant had time to dig a hole and bury his talent but not time to go to the bank and invest the money. My friends, it is always good to remember that we, not others, are responsible for what we become in life. May God bless us with the grace to fruitful in our endeavors!

Msgr. Anselm Nwaorgu

Prayer to ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

MIND AND SPIRIT MINISTRY

All of us within the Mind and Spirit Ministry team are excited to announce the beginning of our support groups.

These coping groups will provide tips that can help you or someone that you care for, find mental and spiritual support. These are not therapeutic groups but monthly opportunities to integrate the supportive qualities found through faith, community, and mental health strategies for a different mental health theme each month.

In addition to the useful resources that will be available to all those who attend, we will provide a welcoming atmosphere, refreshments, and necessary discussions on the different themes of mental health that affect many in our daily lives.

These sessions will be held once a month in the lower church starting with our first on Thursday, November 16th at 7pm. The theme for this session is Coping with grief and loss.

We look forward to seeing you all then.

Monthly Prayer

This month represents a time to remember those we have lost. This month can be a time to grieve and mourn those we have lost. Memories can trigger difficult feelings which makes support from others, and connection to God very important. In this time, we wanted to share with you a prayer to support you during times of need.

Jesus, you who wept at the death of Lazarus and gave comfort to widows and orphans, be with us now as we mourn.

Comfort us in our sorrow, strengthen our faith and deepen our hope in the Resurrection. Help us experience your presence among us. Amen

May these words be of comfort to you throughout this month. If there is an aspect of mental health that you would like us to pray for, please feel free to email us at ourmindandspirit@gmail.com
