Message From The Pastors Desk

HE ROSE FROM THE DEAD FOR MY SAKE

The response to the Responsorial Psalm for the first reading on this Easter Sunday is: “This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad”. It is truly a day when the biggest thing that means the most in our lives happened—the resurrection of Jesus Christ—the very act that destroys the powers that block our blessings, pollute our anointing and short-circuit our destinies in life. Today, we have gained a counselor, a defense lawyer, and an advocate, who is going to be seated at the right hand of God interceding for us while doing everything He can to do right by us.

My friends, life is all about where your hope and faith is anchored. You see, many people have been hurt and crushed in life because they found faith and hope in their own strength and abilities. Many have been bashed and destroyed because they found hope and faith in others. Many have been disappointed and devastated because they found faith and hope in material investments. Many have been broken, torn to pieces, and even killed because they found hope and faith in human love and promises. We all know too well what human beings can do, how their desires and wants can compromise even the most sacred of things. People can do you good and they can do you badly and they can do you so bad that you wonder what there is in life left to be appreciated.

But thank God for Jesus Christ risen from the dead! Thank God we have a kinsman-redeemer who not only knows how to do us good but also comes to us as the only power capable of helping us resist the seductions of human wants, the weakness of cowardice, and the destructive powers of compromised promises. So, what Christ did for us today, by His resurrection, is to turn those things that used to break us into things that make us; those things that tend to destroy us into things that bless us; those situations that tend to weaken and despair us into situations of opportunity and hope. Remember that Christ’s mission on earth was to counter the efforts of the devil to abort our anointing, pollute our blessings, and protect us from all evil powers and forces that conspire to destroy our future. There are some people in whose company it is easy to do wrong and there are some in whose company it is easy to do right. Wrong turns are made in life either because we are in the wrong company or somebody who should have helped was not there. When we are with the right person in life, nothing else matters; and when we are not with the right person, nothing can make up for the absence.

My friends, we can stand steadfast in this life only when we stand it in Christ Jesus; we can do things right only when we do them with Jesus, and we can fight it out in life only when we fight it out with Christ. Our strength comes not from the inside, not from the outside, not from others, not from things, but from the Risen Lord. This is why we should commit ourselves to stand in Christ no matter what happens”. Remember that Easter is all about standing with the Lord because He is the true reason for this season.

Dear Parishioners:

Many parishes have met their goals and exceeded it. It is sad to say that our church is not listed as exceeding our goal. This is not good for our Church. We need to be among the first in fulfilling our responsibility to the Archdiocese and therefore call upon our parishioners who have not made their contribution to do so. We need to meet our goal before the end of April. May the Good Lord bless you for your generosity to the mission of the Church in our Archdiocese.

Remain very blessed.

Msgr. Anselm

To All Parishioners:

Our beloved pastor, Msgr. Anselm Nwaorgu will be celebrating his 30th Anniversary as a priest on May 30, 2022. To celebrate this beautiful milestone, a Commemorative Journal is being created as a keepsake and lasting memory of his dedicated ministry.

We have been blessed with his ministerial work and this journal marks the time that he has spent at St. Michael's Parish and throughout his 30 years of priesthood touching lives and doing God's work.

PARTICIPATION IS VOLUNTARY.

To those who wish to place an ad/send messages/greetings, please go to tinyurl.com/msgranselms30th

Thank you,

The 30th Anniversary Committee

Please make every effort to maintain your Sunday offerings by using one of the following methods:

- Mailing/dropping off your envelopes to the Parish Center Office (1211 Orange Ave).
- Online Giving Go to our parish website (stmichaelunion.org) and click on the Parish Giving button that will take you to the easy sign up form.

Dear Parishioners,

In order for us to stay in the GREEN, it is important that we meet our weekly budget collections and SOS. Please let us continue to support the weekly Sunday collection so that we can achieve our goals of balancing the budget going forward.

Thank you for your support of the parish and your continued generosity.

Msgr. Anselm

Thank you to our parishioners who have started using Parish Giving. Sunday Collections donated online, using Parish Giving, has increased from 9%, in 2019, to currently 30% of our Total Sunday Collections.

Donating your weekly collections through the Parish Giving online platform is helpful now more than ever. Due to health and safety concerns related to the pandemic the number of volunteers that are available to count the collections has significantly diminished. By using online giving you are selecting the safest and easiest method of giving for St. Michael's Parish.

To start using Parish Giving go to our parish website (stmichaelunion.org) and click on the Parish Giving button or scan the QR Code above, (with your phone camera) that will take you to the easy sign up form. Thank you for sustaining the parish during the unprecedented emergency that we are experiencing.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The Joys of Easter

Christ is risen. These words fill the festive celebrations of Catholic Churches throughout the world. Some people, however, have difficulty experiencing these joys in the depth of their hearts due to their circumstances in life. Catholic Charities aims to help relieve the suffering of many in our society through its various programs.

Please help Catholic Charities continue its mission by donating your unwanted clothing, shoes, and other items to the Donation Bin (s) located on our property. May the spirit of the Risen Christ resound through your generosity. Thank you.
