FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Whoever lives the truth comes to the light.

JOHN 3:21

©JPPC

It Is Not Over Until God Says So

In the first reading on this 4th Sunday of Lent, Year B (2 Chr 36:14-16, 19-23), we are told that because of their sins, the land of Israel was completely destroyed and those who escaped the sword were carried into captivity to Babylon. They were in captivity for seventy years and had no hope of returning to Judah. Then, a pagan king, Cyrus, took over Persia, and God touched his heart to let all the Israelites return home to rebuild the temple. All the people could say was, "When he Lord delivered Israel from captivity it seemed like a dream." It is never over until God says so. In the gospel (John 9:1-41), which is used for our second Scrutiny Sunday, we read about the man born blind whom people had written off and believed that his blindness was a generation curse and would follow him to death, and how Jesus healed him, and he was able to see again. It is never over until God says so.

My friends, extreme challenges are part of life and will always be. Many a time, we find ourselves in situations that look like points of no return; we can't seem to find our way through the darkness, things look like the devil is winning the battle, we begin to mistake life problems as divine punishment, and we find ourselves developing the feelings of hopelessness. But it is never over until God says so! In these moments, we need "Believing Faith," a trust so firm that one is ready to risk death a hundred times over, trusting in it. This is the kind of faith that connects with Jesus and, by this connection, refuses to doubt, give up, or go into unbelief. It is a kind of faith that latches unto Christ, trusting Him for something everyone else is powerless to do. It is a kind of faith that believes that one's adversity is God's opportunity to glorify His Name. This is not faith based on wishful hope; it is faith based on God's Word and promises, for the glory of God is in the fulfillment of His promises. Scripture says, "Listen to me, O house of Jacob, I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and I will save.... Remember this and stand firm... I have spoken, and I will bring it to pass; I have purposed, and I will do it. (Ref. Isaiah 46:3-11).

Believing faith requires certain behaviors. It requires negating the negativity of our environment and Nay-Sayers because our fears about what people will say and our feelings about how peers and friends will react can inhibit belief. Believing faith requires us to counter pride and negative self-talk; those inner feelings that inhibit divine encounters. Believing faith is a surrendering hope; a hopeful hope that believes, no matter what. Believing faith requires that we keep believing even when we are at our lowest point, when nothing seems hopeful, no light is in sight, and desperation sets in. It is never over until God says so. Scripture says, "My faithful one shall live by faith alone and if he draws back, I have no pleasure in him" (Hebrew 10:38) and verse 39 says, "We are not among those who draw back and perish but of those who believe and are saved". My friends, let us keep believing no matter what is happening and never allow our faith to grow dim. Let us live above our feelings, never despairing, knowing that trusting in God can and will deliver us unto victory. This is the power of believing-faith! We are better off when we live by it, and we will be surprised by what the good Lord can do. May God grant us the grace for "Believing Faith".

Mind and Spirit Ministry

All are welcome to come and join us on Thursday March 14th at 7pm, in the lower church to pray and discuss the Forgiveness of Self and Others. Let us explore the importance of this to our mind and spirit during this Lenten season.

Dear Heavenly Father,

Help me to forgive. Take the burden of unforgiveness and bitterness away from me. Help me to give up my right to get even. Free me from the toxic emotions that are keeping me in the painful grip of the past. I want to forgive as You have forgiven me. I may not feel like forgiving, but I know with Your strength and in Your power, I can forgive. I know I need to forgive for real healing to happen.

I trust you God to deal justly with what has violated and wronged me. I will leave the justice up to You. I don't want to be overcome with wrong, but desire to overcome wrong with good, by forgiving. I am confident in Your Word, which proclaims I can do all things through You, who gives me strength. I will surrender my unforgiveness to You and forgive.

Thank You, my precious Lord and Savior!

In Jesus Name,

Amen

“A Special Thank you!”

Leaving St. Michael's is not easy, after almost 7 years serving as your Deacon has been wonderful experience. As most of you know St. Michaels was my first assignment. It was a new beginning for me in my ministry as it was a new beginning for St. Michaels having their first permanent deacon assigned to the parish. I thank God for these past years as I have worked among many of you in service to our Lord and Savior. It has been very fulfilling as a deacon to have shared so many experiences with so many of you from baptizing your children to teaching your child in CCD, to preparing you for marriage and officiating the marriage, to serving at wake services and funerals for your loved one, to various other committees and programs that we have worked on together all for the betterment of St. Michael's parish. I have strengthened some existing friendship and made many new friendships during this time. The parishioners of St. Michael's have shown me true love and compassion which I will cherish for a lifetime. As I mentioned to many of you, it was not easy leaving an assignment you truly loved. My new assignment at St. Joseph in Maplewood is only a short distance away and I personally invite all of you to come and visit. I want to thank you all for your kind words you offered to me on my last Sunday and for all of you that were able to attend my Farewell Mass and reception. I pray that God will Bless each of you and St. Michaels parish as we continue our discipleship to serve our Lord and one another. I also ask for your prayers as I begin my new ministry at St. Joseph parish, which will begin on the weekend of April 13 & 14.

God's Blessings and may the Peace of Christ be always with you!
