When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Mark 6:34

Work to Live so that You Can Live to Work

In the Gospel of this 16th Sunday in ordinary times, Year B, (Mark 6:30-34), we hear the apostles recounting their successes as they came back from their first mission away from their Master, Jesus Christ. Looking at them, though, Christ saw exhaustion; a need to refuel, to regroup, and to take in some fresh air, and so He says to them, "Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest awhile." Jesus knew that His disciples needed to take some time-out so that they can have the strength to meet the challenges ahead.

Unfortunately, our society has become so addicted to work to the extent that when we are not somehow engaged, we feel lost or even empty. In a study about Americans and work habits, it was found that on the average, American spends 72 hours a week maintaining job-related contact and work-related tasks, not including chores and everyday tasks at home. About 81% checked their work email over the weekend and more than 59% checked their work email while on vacation. About 6% checked their work email while their spouse was in labor and another 6% checked their work email at a funeral. It was also found that, on average, more than 10 hours a day was spent looking at screens in one form or another, with much of that time devoted to work-related topics. Yet, increased screen-time has been associated with increased reports of depression, stress, increased risk of heart disease, obesity, diabetes, accelerated aging, and even the formation of brain lesions associated with Alzheimer's. Isn't it amazing that our work-related habits seem to be working us into an early grave.

It is not an uncommon proposition that our inability to rest seems to be an exposition of a much deeper problem that may be related to the idea that people tend to desire to be self-sufficient without God. Yet, the effort that it takes to do so does, very easily, leave many exhausted and empty. St. Vincent De Paul once said, "It is a trick of the devil...to incite [souls] to do more than they are able, in order that they may no longer be able to do anything." My friends, there does come a time when it is important to put down our phones, remove our thoughts from work, and just rest, be recollected, and spend a little bit of time communing with God, alternating our lives between work, relationships, physical exercises, and spiritual renewal.

Many people have found it helpful to establish a rule of no phones, tablets, or screens during family meals, so that the family can have time to enjoy each other's presence. Some have established regular routines of taking short walks each day with family members or alone with God. Some others have established routines involving regular Mass attendance, being part of a Bible Study group, prayer and devotional groups, private visits to the Blessed Sacrament, Eucharistic adorations, etc. These are all powerful ways of taking time to withdraw and to be at rest in the Lord, and luckily, we have all these devotions and opportunities in our parish.

Let us find ways to rest with Jesus on a constant basis, to be with family and friends, to recharge our batteries, and to enjoy and appreciate the things that God has put into our lives. It is the one who can work today and tomorrow while preserving all that matters in life that is a true winner. May God grant us the grace to remember to "Come away to a lonely place and rest a while".

Drop off donations at the parish center or in any of the collection boxes in the Church Vestibule in an envelope marked "USAN 2024". Be sure to have your name, group name, or group number on the envelope.

Use our church online giving in our website, www.stmichaelunion.org or Zelle to stmichaelunion@comcast.net and write USAN 2024 in the comment.

All checks and money orders are to be made payable to St. Michael's Church, and write "USAN" and group name in the Memo.

Duration of fundraiser:

This year's fundraiser will actively begin on April 15, 2024, and officially end on July 31, 2024. You can continue to remit money through Sept 30, 2024.

For more information, please call the office at (908) 688-1232 or talk to any priests, Cynthia Grandeza, David Bernot or a "Group Facilitator."

I urge all our parishioners to stand tall and steadfast and commit to this blessed effort. We can accomplish any goal if we do it together. The good news is that we can, and by the grace of God, we will. At this point, our motto is forward ever, backward never.

In the vestibule of the Church, you will see the Plaques for the past two years of our USAN Mission with the names of the various groups and their facilitators. We intend to create a history out of this venture because it is proving to be a life-wire for the survival of our parish.

Please pray that the good Lord may grant success to the work of our hands.

MILLENNIALS IN CHRIST (MIC)

Our first meeting was amazing. We centered our worship and conversation around God's definition of love. Many of us reported feeling filled with the Holy Spirit and are excited to meet again next month. We invite parishioners from all cultures between the ages of 25-40 to grow in fellowship and faith with us. Millennials with Christ aims to encourage others to be soldiers for Christ in a way that resonates with our generation because we are trying to draw people within our age range into the Catholic Church since so many of our peers have left.

Jesus replied, "You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind." This is the first and greatest commandment. A second is equally important, "Love your neighbor as yourself." The entire law and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments."
