Mission

A diverse spiritual community in action, dedicated to drawing people to Christ and making church and worship matter. We do this through our liturgical worship and living out our stewardship of time, talent, and treasure.

From “Hosanna” to ‘Crucify Him’

Today is Palm Sunday; the day we celebrate our Lord's triumphant entry into Jerusalem with the people singing “Hosanna to the Son of David.”

Unfortunately, four days later, that chant changed to “Crucify Him, Crucify Him.” The Apostle James, in his letter (chapter 3:6-10), says that “the tongue exists among our members as a world of malice, a restless evil, full of deadly poison.” He continues, “From the same mouth, we bless God and [also] curse human beings.” Then, he concludes, “This need not be so, my brothers.”

Yes, this need not be so. In the First Reading, Isaiah says, “The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them” (Isaiah 50:4). St. Paul in Ephesians 4:29 says, “Let every word that comes from your mouth be such that it will edify those who hear it.” The truth is that words matter, and words have power—the power to help, to heal, to hinder, to hurt, to harm, to humiliate, to tear down, to reconcile, to destroy, to inspire, to degrade, to cause joy or sadness, and to humble. In short, words can shape the course of people's destinies.

So, in your self-talk, let your words be positive, encouraging, motivating, uplifting, and capable of instilling belief in yourself. Your words can become your world, for the “Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.” We create our own weaknesses and our own strengths by our word.

When it comes to others, let's choose our words carefully before we utter them, because our words, which may not mean much to us when they were spoken, can create a lifetime of negative memory in the minds and hearts of others. Words can be forgiven, but they are rarely forgotten. Even when people forget our words, they seldom forget how we made them feel by what was said. Let us endeavor to leave people with loving words because it may be the last time we will ever see them. It is important that we avoid mixing our words with our moods because our moods can change, but our words, once spoken, cannot be taken back.

My friends, while the tongue has no bones, it is strong enough to break a heart and while a broken bone can heal, the wound opened by a word can fester forever. So, let us speak words that are kind, loving, positive, uplifting, encouraging, and life-giving; words that can inspire confidence in others to do things they couldn't dream of doing by themselves.

Msgr. Anselm Nwaorgu

Stewardship of Treasure

Worship Office Archdiocese of Newark Post-Pandemic Liturgy Directive Recovering the Full Celebration of the Liturgy

The Archdiocese has issued post-pandemic liturgical directives in order to foster a renewed fullness in liturgical celebrations.

- Beginning as early as the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, April 6, 2023, but no later than Pentecost Sunday, May 28, 2023, all pandemic reductions and accommodations are abrogated. The liturgy thenceforth is to be celebrated in the fullness demanded by its very nature, fostering the full participation of the faithful.

We are already in compliance with most of the directives in this document. Below are the ones we need to pay attention to.

- While live streaming and broadcasting liturgies is a valuable resource for those who are unable to attend because of sickness or major health concerns, it does not satisfy the obligation to participate in Mass for those who able to go to Church and have no serious health concern and issues.
- Every effort is to be made to ensure that, "the faithful, just as the Priest himself is bound to do, should receive the Body of Christ from hosts consecrated at the same Mass and...partake of the chalice..." (Communion will henceforth be offered under both species to give our parishioners the option of receiving both)
- "The consecrated host may be received either on the tongue or in the hand, at the discretion of each communicant"

So, beginning from the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, April 6, 2023, Holy Communion will be offered in both species as was customary before the pandemic. Although there is no obligation to receive in both species, I do encourage our parishioners to avail themselves of this fullest way of participating in the Mass as a Sacrifice of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, broken and poured out for our salvation.

I am grateful to God that the Church has returned to full normality.

Msgr. Anselm

"Give and gifts will be given to you ... the measure with which you measure will in turn be measured out to you." Luke 6:38

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTRY

Consider joining the Eucharistic Ministry, it is a rewarding experience, bringing Christ to others at mass and those who are unable to attend mass. At this time our parish is in need for new candidates for the Eucharistic Ministry.

At this time we are in need of men and women 18 years and older to volunteer to the Ministry of the Eucharist. We presently have openings for all masses. If you are interested in becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, please contact Joann Pastewski at 908-688-8844 or email jpastewski@aol.com

MENTAL HEALTH MINISTRY

We posted an announcement at end of summer 2022 to introduce Mental Health Ministry to St. Michael's Church. Further to the announcement we hosted an evening in December called "Blue Christmas" to support mental well-being over the holiday period with the commencement of the support group service scheduled to arrive in early 2023.

While we are keen to commence with Mental Health Ministry, we are currently waiting for the Archdiocese of Newark to give the go-ahead before we announce a start date for the group service. We will update you with a further announcement in due course.

HANDS OF GRACE MINISTRY (HUGS)

HUGS Ministry distributes GRACE Bags once a month throughout the year. We are presently helping 39 families.

Prayer to ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
