OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

The Solemnity of our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

MATTHEW 25:31-46

King of kings and Lord of lords

This Sunday is the last Sunday in ordinary times, Year A, and is also the Celebration of the Christ the King. Throughout the Old Testament, God promised to send a deliverer; a savior of humankind. It was the fulfillment of this promise that made the Wise Men travel all the way from the Far East to Bethlehem to worship the newborn King, made King Herod slaughter innocent children, out of jealous rage, in his bid to kill Jesus, and made Matthew begin his Gospel narrative with a genealogy tracing Jesus to the lineage of King David. It was Jesus' claim of His Kingship that made Pilate nail the sign, "King of the Jews" on the Cross of the crucifixion. In the book of Revelation, John writes "I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse! The one sitting on it is called Faithful and True. He is called the Word of God... On his robe and on his thigh he has a name written, "King of kings and Lord of lords." It was not until 1925, that the Church officially instituted the celebration of this solemnity by Pope Pius XI. This, he did, in response to the then-growing nationalism and secularism that sought to thrust Jesus Christ and his holy laws out of public life; a move, the Pope believed, was a threat to human civilization and religious freedom. Unfortunately, we still live under that threat even to this day. Bill O'Reilly, on his radio program, a few years ago, asked: "Why is Christianity under attack in our culture?" The answer, in my opinion, is not far-fetched. The two kingdoms, the kingdom of this world and the Kingdom of Christ are in constant conflict and the contrast between them is not about good and evil but rather about two fundamentally different mindsets, belief systems, and loyalties.

The kingdom of this world trusts in the power of the sword, might, and money to conquer, subdue, and lord it over others. It is rooted in advancing and preserving one's self-interests and will, and it invests heavily in defending and advancing one's own group, one's nation, one's ethnicity, one's state, one's religion, one's ideologies, or one's political agendas. Its "Motus operandi" is "tit-for-tat"—"an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." It is a kingdom where money, power, superiority, and affluence, are worshiped; where the end justifies the means and human appetite is the dominant philosophy of living.

In contrast, the Kingdom of Christ is a kingdom that trusts in the power of the cross; in the power of kindness and compassion, in the power of transforming lives from the inside out, in the power of doing God's will even if this requires sacrificing one's own interests. It is a kingdom that believes in putting God first above all things, in serving rather than being served, in carrying the cross not the sword, in returning evil with good, in forgiving the neighbor, in praying for the enemy, and in seeking the well-being of others. It is a kingdom that is not in cohort with the "rulers, authorities, the cosmic powers of this present age and the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places" (Ref. Ephesians 6:12)

My friends, there is beauty in making Christ the only King in my life. His kingship is the only power that makes the resurrection possible, the only power that can wash away our guilt before God, and the only power that offers eternal life beyond the grave. Many a time, we are prone to think that making Christ the King of our lives somehow takes joy and fun out of living. Quite the contrary! As Christ says, "I have come that they may have life and have it in its fullness". As St. Irenaeus puts it, "The glory of God is man fully alive." Yes, man fully transformed to function optimally as purposed by the creator.

So as we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King this year, let us ask ourselves some basic questions: Who is my creator and how should I respond to Him? What is life all about and what happens when I die? How would I make my time on this earth worth it?

It is my prayer that God will guide us in this reflection and bring us to answers that will lead us to eternal life, Amen!

Prayer to ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Ministry Happenings

CYO YOUTH MINISTRY

Our Teen Retreat "Lost & found" was a huge success for the Lord and we have many to thank for that. We will start with the young people who made it happen. Those listed below prepared for months writing and sharing about their Catholic Faith. They presented their speeches on retreat and they opened many hearts to the Lord. They are listed below with their topics in order of presentation.

Jasline Hernandez	Lost & Found
Angelina Holandez	Prayer
Ana Ruiz	Forgiveness
Aeryn Perez	Gift of Life/Self Image
Isabella Espana	Navigating Life Together
Jayden Escobar	Peer Pressure
Amelia Rabanal	Relationships

We were also extremely blessed to have Emma Freire, Michael Kelley, Gabriel Castano, Laila Tomlinson, Michelle Torres and Soraia Somao run discussion groups on retreat. God Bless them all for their great works!

We would lastly like to give a special thanks to all of our Chaperones and Young Adults who attended and shared their faith with our teens and helped to keep them safe. We appreciate their support as well as the support of the community for their donations, prayers and love. God Bless!

CYO Fundraiser

After all Masses on December 2 & 3 and December 9 & 10:

Christmas Wreath: $20.00
Small Grave Cover: $20.00
Large Grave Cover: $35.00

We will be right in front of St. Michael's Church & Rectory. We appreciate your support!

Special CYO Christmas Presentation! The Festival of Lights

Once again, our CYO/Youth Ministry Program will present our Christmas Festival of Lights! Join us on Tuesday, December 12th at St. Michael's Church! Our Festival is a night of Reflection, Music and Prayer to Celebrate the true meaning of Christmas. Our members will reenact the roles of Mary, Joseph, the Angel Gabriel, Shepherds and other Christmas Story Characters. It is truly an event to be experienced and all are welcome! The Festival will begin at 7:00pm on both dates, so please arrive by 6:45. (Doors will open at 6:30pm) Come see, hear and experience the beauty of Christmas!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Religious Education Office is open Monday through Thursday from 9:30AM to 2:30PM (except holidays) or by appointment. We are located in the Parish Center at 1211 Orange Avenue. You can also contact us by phone 908-964-0965 at any time and leave a message, or via email at smccd@comcast.net

MIND AND SPIRIT MINISTRY

Monthly Prayer

This month represents a time to remember those we have lost. This month can be a time to grieve and mourn those we have lost. Memories can trigger difficult feelings which makes support from others, and connection to God very important. In this time, we wanted to share with you a prayer to support you during times of need.

Jesus, you who wept at the death of Lazarus and gave comfort to widows and orphans, be with us now as we mourn.

Comfort us in our sorrow, strengthen our faith and deepen our hope in the Resurrection. Help us experience your presence among us. Amen

May these words be of comfort to you throughout this month. If there is an aspect of mental health that you would like us to pray for, please feel free to email us at ourmindandspirit@gmail.com

LINEN MINISTRY

St. Michael's Church is in need of new ministers to join the Linen Ministry. The Linen Ministry provides clean altar linens used at masses and spiritual celebrations.

What do you need know to be a part of this worthwhile ministry?

- You need to have a washing machine and iron (no starch please).
- Based on the size of our team you can expect to be asked every 3 to 4 months to launder the clothes.
- The linens are washed and pressed. The linens are usually picked up on the weekend and returned within the week of pickup.
- A typical wash consists of approximately 50 to 75 altar clothes.

Consider joining the Linen Ministry it will be a rewarding experience for you knowing the linens you cleaned are adding to the beauty of our altar and the celebration.

If you are interested in joining the Linen Ministry or have questions, please call or email Joann Pastewski at 908-688-8844 jpastewski@aol.com
