Mission

A diverse spiritual community in action, dedicated to drawing people to Christ and making church and worship matter. We do this through our liturgical worship and living out our stewardship of time, talent, and treasure.

Living in the Moment

The Gospel reading, on this 18th Sunday in ordinary times (Matthew 17:1-9), presents us with the story of the Transfiguration. Jesus had taken Peter, James, and John up a high mountain, “And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, “Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

One of the things I admire about Peter the apostle is that he tends always to live in the moment. His present-moment-awareness is very profound. It is really a good way to live—living in the present moment, being aware of what is happening right here, right now, and enjoying fully every moment of it. If it is pleasant, relishing it without holding on to it when things change, because they will, and if it is unpleasant, embracing it without fearing that it will always stay that way, because it will not. There is nothing more precious than living in the here and now—the present moment—noticing the events of the now, fully alive, fully aware, fully involved; knowing when to let go and when to get going. We often find ourselves remembering what has gone and living our lives in hindsight when we should be living our lives in “present-sight”. Scripture says, “Do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? (Isaiah 43:18). We also tend to live our lives anticipating what is to come. Scripture says, “Yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring.” The truth is that when we live in the future, like that, we run the risk of losing out on what today is giving.

My friends, life demands that we live in the present moment, because this is where our life is presently being impacted with consequences for the future. Living in the present moment demands ATTENTION—being aware of things as they are happening in the now-moment, noticing the great and small things happening around us, and taking note of events in our immediate environment. It also demands APPRECIATION—being able to celebrate what we have noticed, love or hate, it does not matter. Finally, it demands ATTENDANCE—being disposed to respond appropriately to what is going on around us. As the saying goes, “It is easy to sit up and take notice but harder is to get up and take action”. Many relationships have been broken and family bonds shattered because people were not paying attention, were not appreciative, and were doing nothing about it. When we do not attend to our attentions, we miss opportunities. May it not be that way with us, Amen!

Msgr. Anselm Nwaorgu

Stewardship of Treasure

2023 UNION OF SAINTS & NATIONS (USAN)

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

May the blessings of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you and your families.

On behalf of our pastor Msgr. Anselm Nwaorgu, we would like to give you an update on our UNION of SAINTS and NATIONS FUNDRAISER 2023 (USAN 2023), which is our church's sole annual fundraiser.

At present, we only have 38 groups formed with 38 facilitators or group leaders. We need to form a minimum of 50 groups to be able to achieve our fundraising goal of $100,000.00 (one hundred thousand). Each group is to raise $2,000.00. We have raised $36,887 so far for this campaign period.

Thank you to all who have already responded. For those who have not, please consider being a facilitator or choose to belong to any formed groups or any new groups that will be formed.

For questions, please contact:

Parish Office 908-688-1232
Cynthia Grandeza 908-591-1065
David Bernot 908-472-8858

May our good Lord give us the grace to commit to do everything possible to be a part of this blessed effort for the sustenance of our church. We hope and pray for the success of this campaign and may God grant us this blessing.

Your brother and sister in Christ,
David and Cynthia
USAN COORDINATORS

Dear Parishioners,

Our ministry to children 0-5 years and their families (HUGS Ministry) has truly picked up to the Glory of God. We now serve over 50 families every month and these are families that truly need help. To make sure our Church continues to carry out this most worthy ministry, we will have a HUGS Ministry Sunday, every third Sunday of the month. Look for the teddy bear in the vestibule of the Church after every Mass on this dedicated Sunday.

Msgr. Anselm N. Nwaorgu

"Give and gifts will be given to you ... the measure with which you measure will in turn be measured out to you." Luke 6:38

ARE YOU GOING AWAY THIS SUMMER?

Many of our parish families are planning to get away for some summer fun and relaxation in the next few months. We pray that your vacation time will be safe and a source of many happy memories. However, please do not take your parish offering with you. Each summer our parish office struggles to juggle the bills as Sunday offerings decrease significantly. If you find that you tend to forget your envelope more often during the less structured weeks of summer, please consider our electronic giving program. Go to our website, stmichaelunion.org, to sign up for electronic giving. It's simple! It's safe! And it keeps God at the top of your giving list even when you are away.
